

EVER.

In Guiding, I have discovered a place to go once a week where I can really be myself, talk to my friends, get away from the pressures in life and just have fun.

— Lauren, Ranger

I was a quiet, introverted teen looking for a place to shine. Girl Guides was that place – to be recognized and to develop into my own person. My Guider made me feel like a rock star.

Make NEW FRIENDS.

Try COOL NEW ACTIVITIES.

Tackle FUN ADVENTURES.

Challenge YOURSELF.

BE SERIOUSLY silly.

Guiding is an all-access pass to tons of fun and new experiences. It's hours of adventure and discovery, countless confidence-building moments and the opportunity to make a difference in the world around us. That's why Girl Guides of Canada—Guides du Canada (GGC) is the organization of choice for over 94,000 girls and women from coast to coast to coast.

What do Girl Guides do?

In Guiding, girls from 5 to 17 can try it all! Once a week they meet with other girls their age to join in more fun than they could ever imagine.

Girl Guides

- ★ Discover the great outdoors and the impact they can have on the environment
- ★ Explore science and technology
- ★ Make their community a better place through small actions that make a big difference
- ★ Learn life skills such as financial literacy and healthy relationships in a fun and engaging way
- ★ Gain an appreciation of the issues that impact girls and women around the world
- ★ Earn badges through eye-opening experiences - like painting a mural, designing mini-robots, going camping, cooking international foods, and so much more!

Why parents choose Guiding

Girls in Guiding love how much fun they have. You'll love what she gains along the way.

Guiding is a place where girls and young women can challenge themselves, put their ideas into action, take part in an amazing range of activities, and gain the skills to confidently navigate their world. All in a safe and supportive environment that welcomes every girl.

You know girls are amazing - Guiding gives them the chance to be just that. Which is why GGC is where girls want to be.
